

7. Shopping Center Signs. In shopping centers, frontage for each separate store shall be based on the width of the front of each business, and signs for such businesses shall be attached to the front of each store. One detached or attached sign for each street frontage may be used to designate the name of the shopping center. In no instance may shopping center name signs be multiple copy to advertise any business in the center.